BOMBSHELLS

Written by Joanne Murray-Smith
Directed by Theresa Saunders

It is an examination of six women at critical junctions in their lives who are either on the brink of a breakdown or break through. It is about external calm and internal chaos, about the tricky landscape of modern womanhood. With singing, dancing, comedy and the hilarity of honesty, the play exposes what some women would just love to say out loud.

This is a light-hearted spoof both of an Agatha Christie whodunit and of bad radio drama, with every cliche of plot and sound effect. Hilariously, all sound effects are produced on stage in the most ingenious and funny ways, with sound effects being the star of the show.

A Big THANK YOU to Michelle and Les and the team at Hervey Bay Security

102 Islander Rd, Pialba QLD 4655 1300 651 427

For almost 4 years they have been monitoring the Security at Z-PAC, attending the premises when the alarm goes off and checking it day and night on their rounds. Unfortunately, we are often subject to unwanted intruders and the security system is of great deterrent and keeps damage to a minimum.

We are now upgrading our security even further and Hervey Bay Security has offered to put in all the new units at no cost!! How generous!! Please support this local business which not only provides an amazing range of security services, but also is a wonderful support of Z-PAC Theatre!

Thanks Michelle and Les!
